

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN PSYCHOLOGY and BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN PSYCHOLOGY

PROGRAM EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES (PEO)

Graduates of AB Psychology / BS Psychology programs are expected to attain the following objectives 3 to 5 years after graduation:

- Acquired theoretical knowledge and developed relevant skills expected of Psychology professionals in an employment context.
- Attained liberal and critical thinking psychometricians and psychologists who contribute to the professional development in the local, national and global work environment.
- Participated and applied psychological theories and methods in the conduct of relevant research in the area of Psychology.
- Successfully demonstrated an understanding of the ethical and legal dimensions of psychological theories and methods by undertaking further training.
- Developed existing skills and acquired higher level competencies either through formal graduate education or in an employment context.

STUDENT OUTCOMES (SO) AND PERFORMANCE INDICATORS (PI)

The Psychology student should attain the following by the time of graduation:

a. Communicate and understand theories, principles, concepts and skills in psychology and other professions such as education, law, business management and medicine.

Performance Indicators

- a.1. Verbalize the different theories, principles, concepts and skills in Psychology.
- a.2. Establish concepts about application of Psychology to other field like education, law, business management and medicine.
- a.3. Distinguish and interpret the different requirements of different fields.
- a.4. Evaluate and analyze the different theories, principles and skills for appropriateness of these to different fields.

b. Develop and sustain arguments about established principles in Psychology and other related fields.

- b.1. Establish concepts and understanding about principle, theories, and skills in Psychology
- b.2. Evaluate and analyze the importance of understanding the theories, principles, and other related areas.
- b.3. Evaluate the established principles and identify their applications.

c. Demonstrate knowledge about Psychometric

- c.1. Identify the different psychological testing materials.
- c.2. Conduct and administer psychological testing.
- c.3. Interpret the result of the psychological testing administered.
- c.4. Update knowledge about current and new psychological testing materials.

d. Tally, encode, compute, interpret and analyze numerical data using their knowledge on statistics.

- d.1. Identify the different statistical treatment.
- d.2. Organize and analyze the numerical data.
- d.3. Interpret the numerical data using the knowledge in statistics
- d.4. Demonstrate ethical dimension of the use of psychological testing materials.

e. Apply the knowledge about Ethics and legal dimensions to make judgments and create approaches to solving problems in an applied or an employment context.

- e.1. Identify ethics and legal dimensions observed in Psychology.
- e.2. Apply ethics and legal dimensions in relation to psychological theories, methods, concepts and skills in Psychology.
- e.2. Identify approaches to solving psychological problems in an applied or an employment context.
- e.4. Develop an approach to solving psychological problems in an applied or an employment context.

f. Apply the theories, principles, concepts, and skills in Psychology in an employment context either on industrial, educational and clinical areas.

- f.1. Create theoretical approach in solving problems in an applied or an employment context.
- f.2. Identify the different areas of specialization like Clinical, Educational, Forensic and Industrial.
- f.3. Differentiate the nature of different areas in employment context.
- f.4. Evaluate psychological theories and methods applicable to different areas employment context.

g. Undertake research using the knowledge and skills in Psychology and communicate the results of such research to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.

- g.1. Conduct researches using the knowledge and skills in Psychology.
- g.2. Communicate the results of researches to both specialist and non-specialist audience.
- g.3. Demonstrate ethical dimension of the use of psychological theories and methods.

