

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN CRIMINOLOGY

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

Graduates of the BS Criminology Graduates of Criminology program are expected to attain the following objectives 3 to 5 years after graduation:

1. Graduates shall have performed the functions required in the practice of the profession including public safety, law enforcement, scientific crime detection, correctional administration, security industry and other fields related to Criminology.
2. Graduates shall have achieved leadership position demonstrating strong sense of professionalism and adherence to ethical standards.
3. Graduates shall have engaged in lifelong learning through pursuit of continuing and advanced studies, scientific and criminological researches, trainings and specialized courses.

Student Outcomes (SOs)

1. Apply concepts and principles in the practice of criminal justice profession.
2. Use techniques, skills, and modern investigative tools necessary for the practice of the profession.
3. Design and develop plans, strategies, and principles in law enforcement, crime prevention, and security service.
4. Assess the needs and problems in criminal justice profession and create system to address the identified needs within realistic constraints such as economic, environmental, social, political, and ethical and its sustainability.
5. Respond appropriately to emergency, threats and national and global crisis.
6. Communicate effectively.
7. Demonstrate combat skills within legal limits.
8. Function in teams to accomplish common goals.
9. Demonstrate leadership skills.
10. Conduct forensic examination as well as analyze and interpret data to solve criminological problems.
11. Adhere to professional, ethical, and legal responsibilities.
12. Analyze security, social and contemporary issues in the field of criminal justice.
13. Recognize need to engage in lifelong learning and continuing professional development.

Performance Indicators (PIs)

SO #1: Apply concepts and principles in the practice of criminal justice profession.

- 1.1 Understand the concepts and principles of criminal justice
- 1.2 Apply the concepts and principles to hypothetical situations
- 1.3 Criticize actual cases based on the acquired concepts

SO #2: Use techniques, skills, and modern investigative tools necessary for the practice of the profession.

- 2.1 Describe the use of techniques, skills and modern investigative tools
- 2.2 Demonstrate investigative techniques and skills
- 2.3 Evaluate the applicability of these techniques to crime solving

SO#3 Design and develop plans, strategies, and principles in law enforcement, crime prevention, and security service.

- 3.1 Develop a plan based on given situations

3.2 Present the plan

3.3 Critique the plan

SO#4: Assess the needs and problems in criminal justice profession and create a system to address the identified needs within realistic constraints such as economic, environmental, social, political, and ethical and its sustainability

4.1 Identify problems encountered in crime solving

4.2 Devise possible solutions to address these problems

SO#5: Respond appropriately to emergency, threats and national and global crisis.

5.1. Determine emergent and threatening situations

5.2. Devise actions in response to emergent situations

5.3. Apply acquired skills in crisis management

SO#6: Communicate effectively.

6.1. Discuss the topics being presented

6.2. Demonstrate confidence to participate in various communications situations

6.3. Create multimedia presentations on the nature, components and process of communication

SO#7: Demonstrate combat skills within legal limits.

7.1. Discuss concepts and principles of combat techniques

7.2. Demonstrate the basic combat techniques

7.3. Apply acquired skills in actual combat situation

SO#8: Function in teams to accomplish common goals.

8.1. Discuss concepts and principles of combat techniques

8.2. Listen to other team mates

8.3. Establish positive collaborative relationship with others

SO#9: Demonstrate leadership skills.

9.1. Identify the roles and responsibilities of a leader

9.2. Apply the concept and principles of leadership

9.3. Delegate tasks and activities based on the capability of the subordinates

9.4. Evaluate performance of subordinates

9.5. Demonstrate critical thinking in solving problems

SO#10: Conduct forensic examination as well as analyze and interpret data to solve criminological problems.

10.1. Demonstrate skills for the conduct of forensic examination

10.2. Perform collection, transport and actual examination of evidence

10.3. Analyze gathered data

10.4. Communicate the results of examination

SO#11: Adhere to professional, ethical, and legal responsibilities.

11.1. Demonstrate knowledge of laws and the code of ethics for Criminologist

11.2. practice in accordance with COPCES

SO#12: Analyze security, social and contemporary issues in the field of criminal justice.

12.1. Identify security, social and contemporary issues

12.2. Devise ways and means to address these issues

12.3. Implement appropriate actions to address the issues

12.4. Evaluate results of actions taken

SO#13: Recognize need to engage in lifelong learning and continuing professional development.

13.1. Identify the need for continuing professional development

13.2. Attend seminars and trainings

13.3. Recognize the need for advance studies and pursuing specialization