OUR VISION

The Lyceum International Maritime Academy (LIMA), founded in 1975, shall be a recognized center of Maritime Education in the Asia-Pacific region by 2022.

OUR MISSION

Cognizant of the requirements of the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), Maritime Industry Authority (MARINA), International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping of seafarers 1978 (IMO-STCW '78) as amended and other quality standards, laws and conventions, the academy is committed to develop globally competitive, self-reliant, and God-fearing Merchant Marine officers and ratings who possess the required competencies combined with high level of commitment, credibility and collaboration.

This is achieved through relevant maritime education that provides the students lifelong learning opportunities through research and involvement in community extension, environment and safety activities.

All these efforts are geared towards equipping the students with the knowledge, skills, ethics and discipline enabling them to actively contribute to the development of maritime profession locally and internationally.
