

RULES AND REGULATIONS For College Students

The SLRC aims to support the educational programs of the institution. Since the SLRC is the basic source of learning materials for every department, all are enjoined to make full use of its facilities and resources, keeping in mind the following rules and regulations.

A. BORROWING REGULATIONS

1. The school I. D. has to be scanned at the control desk upon entering the SLRC. Students with I. D. which cannot be read by the barcode scanner are required to encode their student number in the computer or register in the attendance monitoring form of SLRC users.
2. Borrowing privileges are not transferable and must be exercised personally.
3. Reference books, periodicals, newspapers, clippings, cartographic materials, and book in sets are for room use only, however, these may be allowed to be loaned out for photocopy.
4. Theses, dissertations, feasibility studies, and archives materials are for room use only. Photocopying/picture taking of the abstract only is allowed.

B. LOAN PERIOD

1. The students may borrow twelve (12) books at a time for ten (10) days from the Circulation Section for home reading and may be renewed if there is no prior request. Online renewal of books before the date due is available by sending a personal messages thru the official mail or to SLRC FB page.
2. Books in the Reserve Section may be borrowed and read inside the SLRC. These may be drawn out for overnight use and to be returned the following day.
3. Every borrower must examine the book or other materials he/she borrows and report immediately to the librarian any damage, e.g., torn or missing pages before leaving the SLRC.
4. Compact Discs or DVDs may be borrowed for one (1) day from the Electronic Research Section one (1) title at a time.
